FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE PLEDGING TREE FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES FREE FINANCIAL WORKSHOPS Take Control of Your Money, Anywhere, Anytime

The Pledging Tree Foundation is pleased to announce that they will be hosting two financial workshops in Chester County on February 20th and 23rd. The workshops, which are free and open to the public, will address the issues of those that are trying to recover from the financial indulgence of the holidays and make a fresh start for 2008. Refreshments will be served at both events.

The first workshop will take place on Wednesday February 20th, 2008 from 6:30pm to 8:30pm in West Chester. Dave Hoyer, a representative of Financial Planning Association (FPA) of the Philadelphia Tri-State Area will be presenting "How to Take Control of Your Money." This workshop will equip participants to assess their current financial situations and make positive changes for the future. On Saturday, February 23rd from 10am to 12pm, Joseph Leofsky, from Compass Financial Counseling, will present a second seminar, discussing aspects of financial guru, Dave Ramsey's, 13-week workshop. This workshop will be held in Coatesville.

These two seminars are the first such workshops offered by The Pledging Tree Foundation, a non-profit organization whose mission is to promote disciplined savings in financially challenged families. The foundation plans to host 3-4 free financial seminars each year.

All workshops are free and open to the public with no obligation of any sort. There will be no products or services offered and no one is making profit from these workshops. They are solely for the purpose of educating people and promoting financial well being in the community. The exact location of the workshops will be disclosed upon registration for the workshop (which is required). They will be held in Chester County. Registration can be made by sending an email to register@thepledgingtree.org or by calling/leaving a voicemail at (774) 275-0787 with your name, phone number and which workshop would you like to attend.
