

Volunteers

Volunteers are the helping hands of The Pledging Tree Foundation; they not only help us to achieve our goals but to inspire others to get involve in community service. Join the Pledging Tree Foundation for a dynamic and fulfilling experience. We have several individuals who contribute their time, energy, and expertise but we are always looking for larger participation. If your interested in helping us, please write to us at jointhetree@thepledgingtree.org Currently, we have the following positions open: Director, Volunteer Services

- Designs, plans and directs a volunteer program in a local community
 - Oversees the recruiting, interviewing, hiring, training, and scheduling of volunteers for various activities.
 - Leads and directs the work of other volunteers
- Director, Community Relations & Events
- Communicates through public relations and other areas as needed to provide information about The Pledging Tree Foundation
 - Maintains a proactive communication plan through positive media relations
 - Maintains and updates displays as needed for community events such as United Way Fairs, special events, and other opportunities
 - Develops and publishes at least four newsletters a year
